Class of 2011 and Aegis

DEDICATION

No student - or a teacher for that matter - can ever say enough about him. Mr Martin called him one of the "most genuine, sincere, character driven people I have ever met." Everyone looks forward to seeing him at all the sporting events. We love his dedication and interest he puts forth to all students.

Mr. Polk went to Monty Technical High School, graduating with the Class of 1990. He attended Southern Vermont College and graduated with a major in Business and a History minor. Afterwards, he pursued a career in teaching where he taught 6th grade in Springfield, at Elias Brookings School for five years. He then came to East Longmeadow High School, and has been teaching here for 8 years and counting.

As a high schooler, he played football and basketball. He continued his basketball career and played in college. He shared his basketball knowledge and coached our Varsity Girls Basketball team from 1998 - 2002. Mr. Polk loved coaching and said he would never forget the players and the people he coached with.

His dedication is evident. If one gets to school as early as 5:30 a.m., they will see Mr. Polk. "He likes to go to Hot Table and write college recommendation letters," a student said with a laugh. He reaches out to every student, saying "hi" to them in the halls, even though some of those students have never had him. It is enough to show how much he cares. After all, when there wasn't a Ping-Pong advisor previously, he stepped up to the 'paddle'.

When describing Mr. Polk, the word that comes to mind is "chill." He is an avid runner, and belongs to local running clubs. Mr. Polk is a huge fan of "old school" hip-hop/R&B and loves to spend afternoons golfing. How else could you describe such an easygoing person?

Mr. Polk, you are one of the most favored history teachers of all time. We thank you for everything you have done for the Class of 2011 and we proudly dedicate our yearbook to you. Your tremendous influence on this class will always be remembered!

*Thank You,
Aegis Editors & the Class of 2011*

Dear Classmates,

These past four years have sculpted many unique individuals in the Class of 2011. Together we make up a well rounded class of musicians, athletes, artists, and scholars. When we came into East Longmeadow High School just four short years ago, we were in the process of finding ourselves. We developed lasting relationships with one another and became a family who welcomed new additions and supported each other through the roller coaster ride called high school. Everyone from the class of 2011 has the ability to succeed and achieve at anything they set their heart and mind to. In the past twelve years together, we've made memories that will last a lifetime. As freshman, we walked into this school as children, unsure of our futures. As we walk out the high school doors for the last time, we walk out as adults with confidence and knowledge knowing WE' 11 CONQUER anything. We wish you the best of luck and success in everything you do!

Sincerely, Deanna, Melanie, Kelsey, Shamir, & Carolyn

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS of 2011

Alex Tighe

It has been a pleasure watching you grow into a determined, insightful and self-confident young man. We have no doubt that you will succeed in any endeavor you choose to pursue. Our love and support will follow you wherever you go.

Always,
Mom & Dad

Brian Jeffrey C. Andrukonis

My Dear Son,

We wish you happiness and we will support you, help you and cheer for you always, but our wishes cannot give you success. It can only come from yourself, from the spirit within you. You are a great kid! Believe in yourself and know that mistakes are a fact of life - it is our response to the error that counts. The only limits in your life are the ones you impose on yourself. Work hard and be a man of character. Always remember God and Family first! Have a grateful heart, be proud of yourself and know that we will love you forever and always!

-Mom, Dad & Jason

Alex Tighe

I requested a little sister. What a shock it was when you came home! It doesn't matter that you are bigger than me now; you will always be my little brother. College is out there waiting for you - go for it!
Love,
Liz

Melanie C. Cormier

We are so proud of you! You've always been very strong willed and determined, and we are confident you will have great success in your future. We will support you every step of the way, whether it be pursuing your love for horses or law school. We love you!
- Mom, Dad & Kenny

Sarah Rose Rueli

To our daughter Sarah Rose,
And when you finally fly away
I'll be hoping that I served you well
For all the wisdom of a lifetime
No one can ever tell, but whatever road you choose I'm right behind you, win or lose.
Forever Young, Forever Young Love you always,
Mom and Dad

Alexandra Mraz

Our little bunny has grown up to be a special lady. Congrats from two proud grandparents.
Meme and Pepere

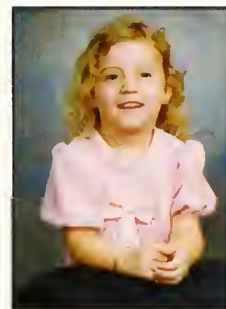

Taylor Kalomeris

Taylor: Congratulations! It has been a privilege watching our great student become a wonderful young woman. You respect life and care about people.
We are so proud of you. Please remember that your values are your compass. Trust your instincts. We will always be here for you.
Love always,
Mom and Dad

Alexandra Mraz

Ali- You may be all grown up with ideas and dreams of your own, but to me you will always be
"Daddy's Little Girl" I love you more than you will ever know.
Love, Dad

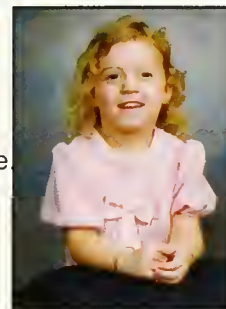

Megan Grieshaber

Megsy, It's hard to believe you graduating from high school. We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. We've enjoyed watching you swim, dance, play lacrosse and grow into a beautiful, intelligent, compassionate and loving young woman. Continue to work hard to achieve your goals and dreams.
Remember we are always there for you with our love and support.
Love you to the moon and back,
Mom, Dad and Michael

Alexandra Mraz

Ali, Wow! Graduation!
My girl with her own style, caring nature, and so independent!
I'm proud of the woman you are becoming. Keep a positive attitude.
Enjoy life's journey. I will always be here with my love and support.
I'm so proud of my daughter,
my smelly, my poochie!
Mom

James Tyler Croci

Congratulations JT!
Last of the Croci's but certainly not the least! You were a "sponge" through the years soaking up everything you learned in the classroom and on the athletic fields. We are so proud of you!
Now onto your next big adventure... trying to wake up on your own. We love you!
Mom, Dad, Sam & Eric
(Cleo & Kona)

Alexandra Mraz

Ali- Watching you grow from an adorable little girl...to the beautiful young woman you are today, has been amazing! Thank you for sharing your life with me.
You have filled my heart in ways no one else could. I love you!
Your proud Step-Mom,
Stacy

Kelsey Rahilly

You Can!

Jeff Witz

Jeff,
We treasure all of the special times we've shared with you over 18 years. You have brought us smiles, laughter, and a lot of happiness. We are so proud of you - everything that you have accomplished and the warm compassionate person you have become. We wish you four wonderful years in college, lifetime friends, and the career of your dreams. We love you!
Mom, Dad, Patrcik, and Buddy

Kenneth David Morrisino Jr

Congratulations! We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments. Most importantly, we are proud of the person that you have become. You have always made the right choices, some pretty impressive decisions and have always been so truthful. Sometimes a bit painfully truthful, but we appreciate your honesty. Always remember to stay true to yourself. Good luck with this new phase in your life. Think and dream big! We know you can do it! We love you, Kenny.

Mom and Dad

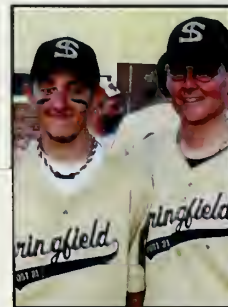

Ty Emet

Ty,
Whatever the future holds we'll always be there for you!

Love,

Mom, Dad, and Amanda

Kenny Morrisino

Hi Ya Ya,

Congratulations on graduating!
I feel like it was just yesterday that we were having a candlelight dinner under the kitchen table.
I wish you the best of luck in college and on.

I love you,

Katie

P.S. Mom asked me to get the Fluff...not you!

Sean Patrick Smith

Dear Sean,

I would try to write some words of wisdom, but you pretty much

Community Service

"For he did not wish tribute, nor song, nor monuments nor poems of war and valor. His wish was simple.

"Remember us," he said to me. "Go tell the Spartans, passerby, that here by Spartan law, we lie."

-Dilios

In order to graduate students must complete forty hours of community service, the forty hours are not enough for most ELHS students and they go above and beyond.

Ashley Webb '12: "For my community service, I coached little girls with cheerleading, it was a good experience because I love working with children, and it was an easy thing to get done for community service."

Tim Gaudet '11: "For my community service I was a banner carrier in the Fourth of July Parade and I really enjoyed it."

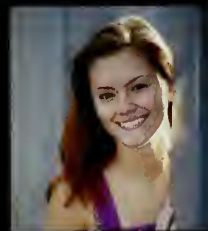

Kayla Stone '13: "I think the Elk's dinner was a good experience for community service. I liked to help out with other members of key club."

Gourab Starker '13: "For my community service I helped out at my dad's hospital event in Monson and helped at band concerts."

Jess Braica '11: "For my community service I usher at band concerts, worked at the Carribean Fest, and helped with cat adoptions at AW Browns."

Andrea Lydick '11: "I did several hours of community service for the East Longmeadow Conservation Commission, looking at files and getting their records up to date. I have also spent time at a Draft Horse Rescue farm in Palmer (Blue Star Equiculture) helping to feed and walk and talk about the horses and the facility there."

Josh Iwanicki '11: "I have worked with a great leader who has taught me alot about what I can become as a person. Mrs.Toth has lead me through 4 years of helping out the choral program I don't know how high school would have gone without her."

Amanda Emet '12: "For community service I managed intown basketball and I have done the shredding paper day since freshman year."

Employed Students

*"Spartans! What is your profession?"
-King Leonidas*

Over the last two years, we have worked with some intriguing clients, many of them from East Longmeadow High School. The best part about our job is making friends, building relationships and watching people grow into amazing and unique adults. It's what FEND is all about, really. Thanks to our ELHS students who took a chance on the 'new guy on the block'. We wish you nothing but happiness and success as you continue on your journey that you've already begun.

Love and FEND,

NICU

There is a place where premies go
When they're small and it's hard to grow
The people work hard to see them through The wonderful place called the NICU

The things they do are beyond compare
They really show how much they care
There isn't much that they can't do
This wonderful place called the NICU

You see them work with IV's and such
You can tell they have a gentle touch
Everyday they bathe and weigh and even feed
And give the little tots what they need
While they get bigger and gain their pounds NICU knows it won't be long until they're not around NICU says goodbyeto the premies and their parents too and off they go to the CCU.

-Gary Blackburn

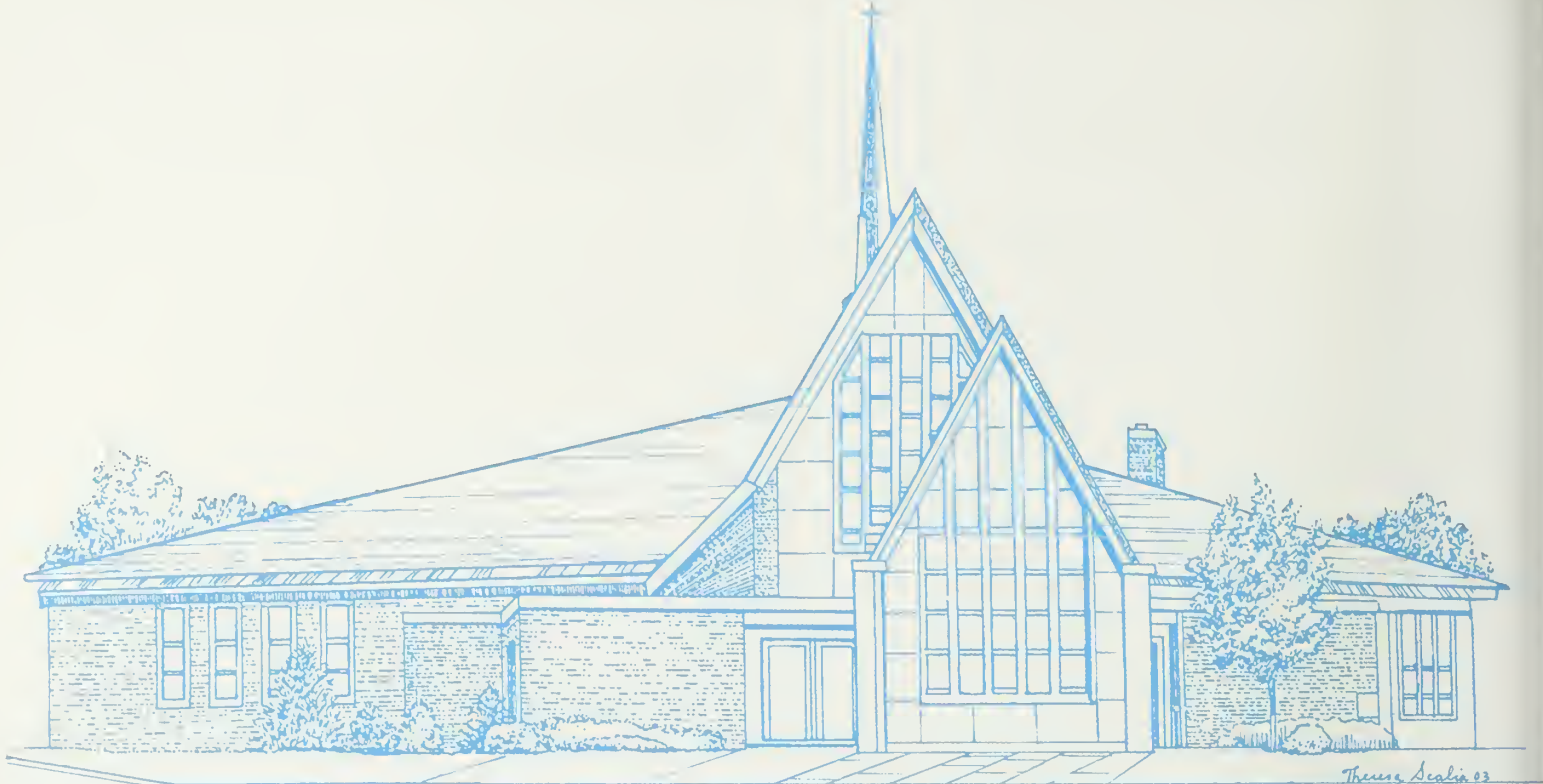

Congratulations! You have been amazing since you were born. You have been a fighter since day one. We guess that's why you wanted to enter this world early. Twenty-three weeks and there you were, couldn't wait to start your life. It was a hard journey being only 12 ounces. The second day we were really worried, especially when the priest came in to give you last rights, but you said no way, I'm going to make it and you did. You had your first bath in a 1 lb. butter dish. amazing! It was 92 days before we could take you home, and that was the best day in our life. We knew we had one special girl that God wanted to keep on Earth. Of all your achievements that you have done; such as your love of basketball and soccer since you were 4 years old. It has brought you to high school as a freshman playing varsity in both sports. Having an operation on your legs, you bounced back and still played in pain with all your heart. That is the fight in you!

You have always worked hard to stay on top of your grades even with practice and sports. What we are trying to say is we're proud! Never forget your favorite country song by Reba McEntire, "I'm a survivor," because you truly are! Jaimie, you made it.

Congradulations again and remember to keep pushing in life and you will be the best at whatever you decide to do. Your family of five sisters, two brothers, one grandmother, Nana, and your Papa Don wish you the best in years to come!

We love you!
Love Mom & Dad

Editor's Note

The yearbook has truly been a one-of-a-kind experience. Everything the editors have been through this year is finally over as we conquered the yearbook! This year at East Longmeadow, we wanted to show our true Spartan pride through the theme of We'11 Conquer. As students at ELHS we can conquer any task that comes our way, and as Spartans, we will have great success in our futures. Jocelyn and I would like to thank everyone for the countless hours of dedication in making our yearbook a great success.

Mac - Thank you for telling us a week before deadline that another section was due. It was great spending a week straight flipping out about the yearbook! Also, thanks for getting us on those advertisements, I had a great time with all that. You listened to me whenever I was so stressed out, and just let me ramble. I needed that! Mr. Fix It would always fix any problem I had, after I asked a thousand times. Thanks again, and good luck with next year's editor - hopefully they're easier to work with than me.

Amy Dunn (Jostens representative) - Thank you for listening to me when I was stressing out. You had a solution for everything that always helped me calm down. I would have probably died of a heart attack if it wasn't for your help.

Jostens - Thank you for allowing us to push back our deadlines. This was the first thing I was ever late for. We would not have a finished yearbook if you gave up on us.

Grynn & Barett - Thank you for keeping us updated on all the fabulous pictures. It certainly made our job easier not having to worry about having to take sports pictures.

High School Staff - Thank you for putting up with everything that had to be done. From taking you out of class rooms to take your picture, to bombarding you with sales and promotions. You supported us all the way!

The Community - We can't thank you enough for all of your support. From advertisements, to donating money at sports games. This yearbook would not have been a success without you...actually, there would not have been a yearbook at all.

Editors - Ali, Carolyn, Jessie, Carissa, Maya, Greg, and everyone else on yearbook committee, without everything you did, we would not have been able to complete this yearbook. There was so much work to be done, and you stuck with it until the end. Thank you so much.

Class of 2011 - Thanks for filling out superlatives, getting parent ads, giving us all the information we needed for sports, and all of your support. Most importantly, thanks for dealing with Melanie! We hope you enjoy this yearbook as much as we enjoy it. Thanks again.

- Melanie and Jocelyn

Top Siders

From popped collars to Top Siders, prep style endures. True Prep shows a new generation how it's done and what it means.

Sequins

Shiny, sparkly sequins become a major fashion trend when Zoe Kravitz and runway models are spotted wearing them on hats, dresses and tops.

Hats

Self-expression is always in fashion and the right hat makes it easy to add panache (and hide a bad hair day). All you need is a cute fedora or a jaunty newsboy cap.

Military Jacket

There's nothing olive drab about this trend. Military jackets are snappy, sleek and chic — a far cry from the oversized Army surplus look of yesteryear.

Energy Drinks

Energy drinks are the beverage of choice among sleep-deprived students, despite concerns that they contain unhealthy levels of sugar and caffeine.

Pillow Pets

Now it's a stuffed animal. And now it's a pillow. Puffy, popular PillowPets™ may be the snuggliest, softest trend of the year.

Dentists report that more and more teens are asking about teeth bleaching procedures, especially for photo-op occasions like proms or sweet sixteen parties.

Flip Flops

Parents and foot doctors hate them but the flip-flop fad is a year-round phenomenon for guys and girls alike (except during snowstorms).

Monkey Slippers

It's a toy. It's a slipper. It's a fun fashion trend. Sock monkey slippers are popular in college dorms and at slumber parties.

Long Necklaces

Long, statement necklaces are trend-right. Gossip girls look luxe with Tiffany-style trinkets. Layered, chunky, vintage baubles create an alt-rock, art school vibe.

Silly Bandz

The bandz are banned! Some schools decide that Silly Bandz — the popular silicone rubber bracelets — are too distracting for the classroom.

Over the Knee Boots

Boots go to great lengths. Over-the-knee styles are seen everywhere from runways to red carpets. Trendsetters wear them with short skirts or slim leggings.
